Questions 153-156 refer to the following news report.

World News	Downtown businesses were closed for several hours yesterday due to a power outage that affected several blocks in the heart of the shopping district. Stores lining Mayfield Avenue and Brownstone Street, the city's main shopping streets, were dark for several hours. "This couldn't have happened at a worse time," said Bob Withers, owner of Bob's Place. "We're right in the middle of the holiday shopping season. We had large crowds of people down here yesterday doing their holiday shopping, buying gifts for their friends and toys for their children. I get a lot of the holiday shoppers in here for lunch and afternoon coffee. It really hurt my business to have to close yesterday, and I know my colleagues in the neighborhood have also been really hurt by the incident." Jane Wright, President of the Neighborhood Business Association and owner of The Corner Bookstore, agreed that yesterday's incident would have serious repercussions on area businesses. "We bring in the most profit during the holidays," she explained. "No one can afford to be closed for even one hour at this time of year." The power outage occurred just after noon and continued until around 5:00, the start of the evening rush hour. Most stores, however, remained closed overnight but were ready for business at the usual hour this morning.

To: All office staff
From: Myra Jansen, Office Manager
Re: Photocopier
Date: February 15, 20__

This is to notify office staff that the large photocopy machine at the end of the hall is out of service as of late this morning. Constant paper jams have made it impossible to use. These recurring breakdowns of the photocopier are due, at least in part, to misuse of the machine. For example, it has come to my attention that some users are placing pages that are stapled or paper-clipped together into the document feeder. This jams up the delicate internal machinery. The instruction manual for the photocopier is kept on the shelf with the extra paper. Please consult it if you are unsure about any steps involved in operating the machine. It thoroughly describes all the machine's features as well as giving step-by-step instructions for such routine procedures as changing the toner and adding more paper. If the machine becomes jammed or otherwise stops working while you are using it, please don't attempt to fix it yourself. Please inform me or my assistant, as we are trained in troubleshooting the machine.

I put a call into the photocopier company this afternoon, and they will send someone out to work on the machine tomorrow. In the meantime, if you have any critical photocopying needs, you can use the small machine in my office. Otherwise, I would request that you save all your photocopying jobs until after the large machine is repaired.

Subject: Conference

Meredith,

The conference is coming up next Tuesday. That's just a week from today, so we need to finalize some things. I've attached a draft of the schedule. Thank you for getting us the space at the hotel, since the City Conference Center just wouldn't have worked for a small conference like ours. But, would you find out if we can get one more room for the workshops? I'm adding two more workshops to the schedule because I talked to Bill Smith this morning and he agreed to do one on marketing in the morning and one on customer relations in the afternoon. Please call the hotel manager about that before 12:00 today, and then I'll make the changes to the schedule and get it printed up.

Janet Newman, the guest speaker, will be flying in the night before the conference. Her plane arrives at 7:00. Please pick her up at the airport and drive her to her hotel. It's the Runway View Suites, right near the airport. Before you do that, you should call the hotel restaurant and make sure the plans for the conference lunch are all set. Then on the morning of the conference, I'd like you to arrive an hour before everything begins and make sure everything is in order.

Thanks for all your hard work.
Josue

Subject: Courses

Hi, I saw your ad in yesterday's newspaper, and I'm interested in registering for a course. I took some software courses from your program a couple of years ago, and I thought they were excellent. Now I am interested in taking your advertising course. I currently work as an assistant in the accounting department of a mid-size firm, but I am interested in moving into market research. The company completely supports me in this goal and our personnel office will cover 25 percent of the cost of any courses I take towards this, and I would be responsible for paying the other 75 percent. Unfortunately, I have to be out of town during the first week of next month, so I won't be able to start until the following month. Because of that, I'd like to know how many weeks your courses last. I'd like to be finished with the course by the end of December because I have some other obligations coming up in January. If the course will end before January, then please put my name on the list and let me know, and I will get the payment to you right away. Thank you very much for your help.

Subject: Catering job

Dear Ms. Henderson,

I was referred to your company by my former classmate, Emily Pearson, who used your catering services for the training workshop her office put on last November. We are planning an all day meeting for our entire staff for Friday of next week, and I was wondering whether you would be available to cater it. We would like lunch and also would like to have snacks served in the middle of the afternoon. We expect around 25 people to end. Also, do you provide linens and silverware? We would need you to bring those and are willing to pay extra if necessary. We already have plenty of tables and chairs here so we won't need to rent any furniture from you. I was also wondering whether you include vegetarian options in your menus. Some of our staff members don't eat meat. Please let me know if you are available for this job. If you have a brochure, please send me a copy.

Thank you
